Hours: N/A

Area(s) Served: Statewide

Services: School-based and Community-based After School Programs; Weekend Retreats; Holiday Gatherings; Monthly Social Events; Residential Summer Camp

Notes: "New Hope is changing the lives of children of prisoners every day. When a child's parent goes to prison, many important developmental milestones are put in jeopardy and children suffer, but New Hope is working to break the cycle of generational incarceration in the state of Oklahoma. Through our life affirming programs, children are lifted from isolation and fear into possibility and hope. New Hope addresses the issues these children face through our main service areas: community and school-based after school programs, weekend retreats, summer camps, holiday assistance, and social service coordination." Programs are for children ages 5-17.
